The Archbishop of York has given permission for clergy to use churches for personal prayer and for recording and livestreaming acts of worship. It is good that these places, consecrated for the purposes of prayer and worship as a visible sign of God's presence in our villages are once again available for their purpose, albeit in a limited capacity.

Daily morning prayer on Mondays through to Thursdays will continue, however, to come from Thorp Arch vicarage, and our online services, will include elements recorded in the homes and gardens of contributors, from all four church buildings of the Benefice, and from locations around our parishes, too. There is something positive in this. We are reminded that our worship is not limited to the time we spend in churches. By leading worship from our homes and villages, we proclaim that God is always with us, where we are. By joining in worship where we are, we consecrate our own homes, proclaiming that we are God's people at work in our homes and our daily lives, wherever we go. And now, by reclaiming our village's sacred spaces, the churches where generations have gathered to pray, to baptise, to be married, and to be commended into God's eternal care at funerals, we proclaim once again that our lives of faith and service are part of a bigger story: a story which has blessed our communities for many, many lifetimes. Our church doors remain closed, but we have learned that the church doors were never fortresses behind which God's people gathered for their own comfort, and they certainly weren't gates behind which God lurked, only to be encountered when we stepped inside.

I encourage you, if you are able, to engage in your faith afresh in these ever-challenging times. Perhaps you might like to join the online Pilgrim course (details of which may be found elsewhere in this newsletter). Perhaps you can join me in daily prayer on Facebook, Mondays to Thursdays (either live at 7am, or later in the day at a time to suit you better). As we prepare in a couple of weeks to celebrate the birthday of the Church - Pentecost, when the Holy Spirit, promised by Jesus, fell upon the apostles and empowered them for God's service, and before that to remember the Ascension of Jesus, when he went ahead of us to join in the eternal dance of heaven in company with the Father and the Holy Spirit, in the here and now, let's take the opportunity to remember that we are God's people, and by how we live and work and love God and neighbour, we do indeed worship wherever we are.

St Mary's Email Prayer Group

St. Mary's Email Prayer Group was formed 18 months ago to support people with varying needs, not only within the church family but also in the community and beyond, whatever their faith.

We currently have 20 members who commit to regular prayer. A new list is sent out by email every month with names and events that have been requested for prayer along with updates. This list is for private prayer within the group and is not published or shared with anyone else.

During this difficult time when we must isolate ourselves in our homes and are not able to meet together to worship and pray, this group has an even greater responsibility to share the love of God by supporting others.

I am asking you all to consider joining our group (if you have online access).

To be vigilant and contact me if you know of anyone who needs our prayers at any time.

Permission must be sought before adding names to the list.

Please contact me on stmarysprayer18@gmail.com for prayer requests or for an information sheet about joining the group.

Readings for Sunday 17th May 2020

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

Then Paul stood before the meeting and said "People of Athens, I can see that you are very religious in all things.

I was going through your city, and I saw the things you worship.

I found an altar that had these words written on it: "TO A GOD WHO IS NOT KNOWN."

You worship a god that you don't know. This is the God I am telling you about!

This is the God who made the whole world and everything in it. This is the Lord of the land and the sky, the God who does not live in temples that we build!

This God is the One who gives life, breath, and everything else to people.

This God does not need any help from them. This God needs for nothing.

God began by making one human. From God came all the different people who live everywhere in the world. God decided exactly when and where they must live.

God wanted them to look for God and perhaps search all around for God and find God.

But God is not far from any of us:

'By God's power we live and move and exist.' some of your own poets have said: 'For we are God's children.'

Well, we ARE God's children.

So, you mustn't think that God is like something that people imagine or make. God isn't like gold, silver, or rock. In the past, people did not understand God, but God ignored this.

But now, God tells everyone in the world to change their heart and life.

God has decided on a day that God will judge all the world. God will be fair.

God will use a human to do this. God chose that person long ago.

And God has proved this to everyone by raising that man from death!"

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

John 14.15-21

The Promise of the Holy Spirit

'If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you for ever. This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you.

'I will not leave you orphaned; I am coming to you. In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me; because I live, you also will live. On that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. They who have my commandments and keep them are those who love me; and those who love me will be loved by my Father, and I will love them and reveal myself to them

Streaming services from home

The recent guidance preventing clergy from entering their own churches, even to just livestream an act of worship, has prompted a series of imaginative alternatives.

“Not being able to use our church buildings is, of course, a huge loss to us all,” one says, but on the other hand, “streaming worship from home shows that we are alongside those who are having to self-isolate and those who are forgoing so many other things in their lives that they used to rely on. “It also shows that we are facing up to the same restrictions as them and doing all that we can to take a lead in encouraging people to stay at home, protect the NHS and save lives.

“Moreover, to pray from and in the home may help us to show that the Church is, as we all know, us, the people of God, not our buildings.”

ARE YOU FINDING IT HARD TO ACCESS FOOD?

In light of COVID-19 we are putting additional support in place to ensure everyone is able to access the food they need.

Am I eligible for help?

If you are finding it difficult to access food due to financial constraints, self-isolation or accessibility of food provision, then you are eligible for help.

When making the referral you will be asked questions about your personal situation which will enable us to determine what type of support you require.

How can I access help?

If you think you may be eligible to help from these scheme then you can contact a local keyworker or service who will make a referral for you.

This might be somewhere or someone you already have contact with such as a school, college, social worker, housing officer or it could be a provision in your local area such as a Community Hub.

Ideally a referral should be made through one of these support services, however if you are finding it hard to access these please make a self-referral by calling us on 0113 376 0330. This is a free number.

What happens next?

Once a referral has been made, we will pass your information on to local volunteer coordinators, and you will be provided with a food parcel or a supermarket voucher.
