Ensemble Pro Victoria is one of the finest young early music ensembles in Britain. Founded at Cambridge University in 2015 by Toby Ward (artistic director) and Humphrey Thompson (editor, baritone), they focus on music from Tudor England, the Spanish Golden Age and the early Baroque. Most often the group performs one-to-a-part, bringing music to life through the beauty of solo singing as opposed to a choral approach.

St. Peter's Church, Walton

What a great day we had on Saturday. St Peter's hosted the jubilee celebration with various games tombola name the scarecrow coffee and lots of lovely home made cakes, marmalade and local honey 🍯. Although the majority of the day was cold but dry it was lovely to see so many people in the village, following the scarecrow trail.

On Sunday the event moved to the village hall for a bring your own picnic. Again well supported the weather not being so kind , but not stopping the fun and games.

What a wonderful way of celebrating Her Majesty's 70 wonderful years. Thank you to all the hardworking volunteers.
